INTRODUCTION

The LISTEN Bible Study guides you through various Scriptures as you discover that God does speak to you intimately. Men and women of the Old and New Testaments provide excellent examples of how to “Listen intently and follow intentionally – without delay, discussion, or doubt.”

Recall the sound of static on a radio. This implies a missed connection and interferes with the listener’s ability to hear what is being broadcast. A simple twist of the dial adjusts the radio frequency and suddenly the station becomes clear. The listener is connected to the music, sporting event, or news report.

The Bible can be compared to a radio station through which God communicates. LISTEN invites you to move away from the static in your everyday life and personally adjust the dial to hear God’s voice. From Genesis to Revelation, it is clear that God’s desire is for His children to listen to His voice intently, to follow Him intentionally, and to do so in obedience without delay, discussion, or doubt.

The first three LISTEN studies journey through the books of Joshua, I John, and Ephesians. The fourth study samples passages from Genesis, Exodus, Judges, and I Samuel. By using the LISTEN Bible Study, you will learn to:

- Hear God’s voice through His written Word (John 10:27).
- Listen to His whispered Word (I Samuel 3:10).
- Obey and Follow God’s written and inspired Word (James 1:22-25).

What if your desire to tune in to God’s voice matched His desire to be heard? What if your desire to follow Him matched His desire to bless? Go ahead. Adjust the dial and LISTEN.

LISTEN

LISTEN INTENTLY, FOLLOW INTENTIONALLY WITHOUT DELAY, DISCUSSION, OR DOUBT

WEEK: _____ SCRIPTURE: _____

Each day: read the Scripture, pray for understanding, and answer the questions.

DAY
1

LISTEN Word by Word

After having read the entire passage, choose three to five verses that speak to you and write them word for word. This will cause you to listen intently because as you copy the passage, you will think about each word.

LISTEN

DAY 2

Answer six questions

How would you summarize this passage?

What is the main point or train of thought?

What did you learn about God, Jesus, and/or the Holy Spirit?

What are the commands?

What are the promises?

What did God specifically say to you today through the study of this passage?

DAY 3

Truths to be discovered

The truest thing about God, yourself, and your circumstances is what God says in His Word. List the truths in this passage. In what ways would your view of God, of yourself, or of your circumstances be affected if you would believe and would live out these truths?

LISTEN

Move truths from head to heart

As you read the passage, ask the Holy Spirit to open your heart to hear what He is saying to you personally. Sit quietly and listen intently for five to 10 minutes. Record what you hear.

Follow without delay, discussion, or doubt

List the thought patterns, attitudes, and actions God is leading you to change based on what you have read and heard this week. How do you plan to follow through without delay, discussion, or doubt? When?
